

Cha, I think one of the first things I would remember is how easy it was to have you around. You're the kind of person yang fun buat diajak hangout, tapu at the same time nggak pernah terasa melelahkan. Bahkan kalau cuman duduk, ngobrol random, ketawa karena hal nggak penting, atau even just spending time bareng, somehow it's always enough. I think that's a really special quality to have in a friendship, because not everyone can make you feel like you don't have to do anything or be anyone else to enjoy their presence.

And I know you're a good person. Maybe I don't always say it and maybe you don't even realize how much the little things you do can mean to people around you.

So if one day I had to talk about you and everything you meant to me, I'd say that I'm grateful I got to know you. Grateful that somewhere along the way, you became one of those people whose presence I could just enjoy without having to think too much about it. And I hope you know that being a good friend doesn't always mean doing something extraordinary. Sometimes, you just being you was enough.
