

Hello there Kak Caca, it's Shena here! :3

I think it's really a unique concept that you're doing for your birthday. Aku inget how letters meant so much to you, so glad I could write you on one of your special day. First of all, happy birthday! I wish you all the good things in life and more exciting things that will come to you one day. I really mean that from my heart. Karena aku inget waktu kita spend time together, it was all fun and somehow it felt like you're one of the people that I think is genuinely yourself, without hiding anything behind how you express yourself. Kamu orangnya apa adanya, creative, humble, and very fun to talk to, especially one-on-one gitu.

It felt like you were one of those people yang terasa kayak a sister that I never had. We met in quite a brief time and we don't really see each other that often. Most of the times we met were because we had activities together, mostly organization stuffs. But even in that short amount of time, there are still little things about you that stayed with me till now.

If the day you read this letter was your funeral day (which I really hope not), I think I would remember how you were someone who genuinely wanted to help me when I was going through something. It was considerate of you kak. I still remember how you tried to bring me and bestieku clarongg to be closer to the people around us, just because you wanted things to be better for us. Maybe it was just one moment, but to me, it showed a side of you that I really appreciated.

I think that kind of kindness is something that not everyone would think to do or something I'd see often. You didn't really have to involve yourself, but you chose to care anyway. And somehow, that's what I remember most about you. The truth is, there were probably a lot of consideration surrounding that situation, sorry if I let you down in any way possible. But I want you to know that I've dealt with it as life goes on. So when I look back at that specific moment now, I don't really think about how things turned out anymore. I think about how you were kind enough to try helping.

Aku bersyukur bisa bertemu dengan seseorang yang bisa show me what true kindness can look like. I think God has sent a lot of different people into my life, in different situations and at different times. But you, Kak Caca, are one of those people that will leave a hint of warmth in my life, even if we only met briefly. Maybe we didn't have that much time together, but the kindness you showed me is something I'll remember.

I'll miss you a lot, wherever you are, and wherever life puts you. Please always appreciate yourself, because you bring the people around you joy and believe that you're worthy of many good things in the future ahead of you. Keep being the light to the people around you, just like how you've been one for me.

I hope this little letter can put on a smile on your face. I'll always support you from afar. Love you lots, kakk. Bila nanti ada waktu, let's go catch up again!
